Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

Ran two ads for the Murray Upholstery Shop and no phone number. Here it is, 1400. That should be easy to remember.

They are located on North Fourth street where all the apples and bananas have been for sale.

We went to Paducah last night as the guest of John Brandon, and Wildie Ellis, to a semi-annual meeting of the E. M. Bailey Distributing Company.

That is the outfit that John gets all his gas and oil from.

We enjoyed the meeting and the barbecued spare ribs.

We also learned more about gasoline and oil than we ever knew before.

We also learned that a motorist should not be too disturbed, if he uses a detergent oil, if his oil turns a dark color. That color shows that the detergent oil is working right.

According to the Penzill man the detergent washes down the engine walls and this dissolves the oil. The filter takes out the large pieces of carbon, but the fine pieces go on through the filter and they are so fine they can do no damage, but do color the oil.

A movie was shown which taught us the difference between regular and premium gasoline. something we never knew before.

We also learned something about oil men we never knew before. They all have big appetites.

We were a little embarrassed at first when we piled our plate high with spare ribs and accessories, but soon felt at ease when we saw that everyone else was doing the same thing.

Jack Bailey, the head of the E. M. Bailey Distributing Company is a personable young man who obviously knows what he is doing.

Anyway he has a nice bungalow just this side of Paducah.

Today is the first day of spring which arrived at 11:14 a. m. EST. It also is part of lent, national wildlife restoration week and a national hobby week.

This date in history: Napoleon returned from Elba to France, in 1815; Plymouth Colony concluded its first treaty with the Indians, in 1621; and Uncle Tom's Cabin first appeared in book form in 1852.

Reading in the papers where the Air Force shot some rockets into the air 80 miles which contained thousands and miles.

Four monkeys died when they came down because their parachutes failed. The fifth landed safely but died from the heat exposure.

The mice were all ok. Cameras were trained on the mice during the whole trip and they revealed that when the rocket got to a certain point, the mice floated around in the air.

Won't be too long before some joker volunteers to go up in a rocket.

But what is more significant is that of five citations for acting at the conference, Murray State walked off with three.

Spring Makes Entry Over Nation Today

By United Press
Spring makes its formal entry today at 10:14 a. m. but the western section of the nation still is battling old man winter.

Storms that have raged through the far west have killed four persons so far. The Southern Pacific Railroad says it suspended freight and passenger service in the Sierra Nevada range because of snow-blocked roads. The late winter storm dumped 25 feet of snow on the Donner Summit region of the range.

Highway crews at this moment are fighting through mounting drifts to reach 115 persons trapped in the June Lake resort region. The four fatalities were caused by blizzards and snowdrifts. Two were killed when a 20-foot drift of snow slid down a mountain side and buried a power company project in the Owens river gorge. A man and his wife apparently died of carbon monoxide poisoning in the car after it stalled in a snow drift.

In Nevada, Governor Charles Russell debated whether to declare a state of emergency to meet conditions caused by the state's worst winter in 80 years.

And in Montana, Governor John Bonner asked President Truman to extend the 500-square-mile disaster area near the North Dakota border to cover the entire fringe of the state.

A white house representative is making a survey flight over snow-bound southwestern North Dakota, preliminary to recommending federal emergency funds.

KUTTAWA CHANGED TO FIFTH CLASS CITY

FRANKFORT, March 20 (UP)—The Kentucky legislature has voted to change the classification of four communities in the Commonwealth.

Legislature Winds Up Year's Work

By United Press
The 1952 Kentucky Legislature swings into what is expected to be its next-to-last day of business today with a host of minor bills still up for consideration.

Administration leaders say the legislature will be finished by tomorrow evening, although veteran on-lookers at Frankfort say that they'll be surprised if it works out that way.

The usual procedure is for the lawmakers to work right down to the prescribed quitting time—midnight tomorrow—and then stop the clock and keep on passing bills.

Incidentally, the legislative session almost came to an early halt yesterday when the Senate staged a "sidown strike."

The "strike" was led by Senator Paul Stapleton, a Campbell County Democrat, because the House Rules Committee had refused to report out additional Senate bills for consideration. The House committee's action had the effect of killing a dozen bills sponsored by the striking Senators.

Actually, the present session of the General Assembly will end today, so far as bill passing is concerned. The House—at the beginning of today's session—had 27 measures pending in the order of the day. Leaders plan to press for passage of all 25 today, which would leave the house with little to do Friday except call for adjournment.

House leaders plan to reserve Friday for the clerical work necessary to enroll the bills already approved and for concurrence in any amendments that might come from the senate.

Cottage Prayer Meeting To Be At C. Ray Home

The cottage prayer meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. C. Ray, South Sixth Street, Wednesday night.

Mrs. Charles Mason Baker and Mrs. Cleve Calhoun were the leaders. Those attending were people living on South Sixth, South Seventh and Broad Streets.

The entire group, members of the First Methodist Church, joined in discussing how they could do more on winning souls to Christ and being of service to the church.

Announcement

Stassen-Taft At Odds Over Late Results

By United Press
Republican Senator Taft of Ohio and Harold Stassen are at odds over just what the results in the Minnesota presidential primary mean.

Stassen technically won the primary. But General Eisenhower, whose name was not even on the ballot rolled up an impressive vote in vote that some of his backers call a "political miracle."

Eisenhower received around 20,000 overhand votes than regular ballots cast for Stassen. And it put the General in second place.

However, Stassen, whose victory as a "favorite son" was somewhat overshadowed by Eisenhower's showing, says he is "pleased" by the results. And he says he is "particularly gratified by the poor showing Taft made."

Taft, who polled about 24,000 write-in votes in Minnesota, said presidential supporters of Eisenhower campaigned strongly for write-in support. But Taft says his own camp made no such drive.

On the democratic side of the fence, a highly-placed Democrat says a statement by Democratic national chairman Frank McKinney in Key West, Florida, has only compounded the confusion surrounding President Truman's political plans.

McKinney said he believed Mr. Truman would not run again if what he called a "satisfactory" armistice is reached in Korea. Some interpret the statement to mean Mr. Truman will not run this year.

Pool Room Broken Into Tuesday Night

A break-in was reported in the pool room over the Day and Nite Cafe night before last, according to city police.

About forty dollars was taken from the business establishment. There is no indication as yet, as to whom the thief is.

The idea expressed that admission was gained by climbing up the front of the building and cutting a screen in the front window, however only one foot and hand print near the window substantiates this theory.

Tractor School Held Saturday

There were thirty-five present at the fifth 4-H tractor school held Saturday, March 15 at McNutt Tractor and Implement Co. The 4-H members were studying "Fuel Intake and Carburetion." The instructors for this school were: Charlie Gibbs, James Wynn, Earl Wilson, Jack London, Marvin Hill, Alton Cain and Hansford Doran. H. T. Waldrop, Standard Oil Agent, made a talk to the 4-H members about the importance and scope of the 4-H Tractor School. Sid Jones, fieldman for the John Deere Tractor Co., in this area made a safety talk to the 4-H members present. Two pictures entitled "Safety, Our Number One Crop" and ABC of Internal Combustion" was shown to the group by John R. Harrison, Assistant County Agent.

The next school will be held Saturday, March 22 at the Jones Davis Tractor Co. at which time the boys will be working on "General Lubrication and Engine Lubrication."

Janitor Confesses To Part In Theft Of Huge Amount

By United Press
A Reno gambling club janitor has confessed to a role in the biggest burglary in decades.

FBI men say 41-year-old Anthony Gasigli has admitted that he was involved in the theft of one and one-half million dollars from the home of a Las Vegas millionaire, Le Vere Redfield.

Gasigli was the eighth suspect arrested in the fabulous robbery—and, according to Reno police, he has named the other suspects as accomplices. They say Gasigli told them he and the others carted Redfield's safe away from the millionaire's mansion, broke it open and split up the contents.

Officers also recovered another 27-thousand dollars of the loot—that bulging amount now in the hands of the law to 124-thousand dollars. Redfield has told police there was 300-thousand dollars in currency in the safe—along with jewels and securities.

And in the east—in New York—police have arrested a robbery suspect they believe is connected with the terror bombing in New Haven, Connecticut.

Officers picked up Leroy Reddick in New York City—in Harlem. Reddick was identified recently as a robbery suspect, by Homer Wright. Yesterday, Wright and his wife were blown to bits by a booby trap in Wright's small

EISENHOWER SAYS HE WILL RE-EXAMINE HIS PRESENT POSITION
PARIS March 20 (UP)—General Eisenhower says he is re-examining what he calls his "personal position" and past decisions" on the Republican presidential campaign. Eisenhower says he is forced to re-appraisal of the situation, because of his impressive showing in the Minnesota primary election on Tuesday.

Attempt Will Be Made To Increase Key Grain Acreage

WASHINGTON, March 20 (UP)—The agriculture department, concerned about prospective shortages of key food grain crops, may launch an intensive drive to change farmers' spring planting plans.

The department's first crop report of the year shows that farmers are planning a national corn acreage six percent below that called for by the department, 24 percent less barley and nearly 12 percent less sorghums.

These are crops which end up as meat in the housewife's shopping bag. The department has set its target for grain acreage for the year to meet the needs of record livestock numbers now on farms and ranches.

The only remaining chance to meet production goals is to try to change farmers' minds about plantings, or to hope for high yields. However, the latter hope would be based on the risky element of the weather.

A department spokesman, in explaining why feed grain acreage goals were not met, said farmers apparently are responding to price pressures and "turning to crops which take less outlay and brought high returns last year."

Local Dealers Attend Annual Sales Meeting

A meeting of the distributors, dealers and service station operators for the E. M. Bailey Distributing Company of Paducah, was held last night at 7:00 o'clock in Paducah at the Irvin Cobb Hotel.

The group of about seventy West Kentucky dealers were given a barbecue spare rib dinner and an instructive meeting was held afterwards.

Motion pictures and slides were used to describe to the group various technical processes in the manufacture of regular and premium gasoline made by the Aetna Oil Company which the dealers handle.

Max C. Bashore, of the Sales Engineering Division of the Ashland Oil and Refining Company explained the manufacture of gasoline and how a smooth blend of light medium and heavy hydrocarbons is used to produce their gasoline.

Signs Of Volcano Seen In Philippines

By United Press
There are signs of new volcanic violence in the Philippine Islands. One 85-year-old submarine volcano off the northern coast of Luzon Island is belching sparks and smoke nearly two miles into the air. Another, known as Mt. Hibok-Hibok, in the south, is threatening to erupt for the second time in three months. Hibok-Hibok is off Camiguin Island.

The tremors at both ends of the Philippines have come on the heels of a rash of earthquakes around the world. Seven of them were recorded in the Philippines during the past 24 hours.

Geologists warn that the northern volcano, which juts out of the sea 63 miles off Luzon, could blow its top at any time, inundating Luzon with a tidal wave. Officials have ordered residents along the coast to get ready to evacuate on a moment's notice.

Officials also have ordered residents to move from danger areas around the volcano in the south. It's the same area where more than 400 persons were killed in an eruption last December.

Six Game Schedule Coming Up

LEXINGTON, March 20 (UP)—A six-game schedule is in store for basketball fans at Lexington today as a dozen high school teams battle to join Du Pont Manual and Breckinridge County in the quarter-finals of the annual state championship tournament.

The highlight of the morning session will be the first appearance of the defending champions, the Clark County Cardinals.

The defending champions are paired against Somerset in the second game this morning. Bagdad lines against the Pikeville Panthers in the opener at 9 a.m. (CST).

Lower-bracket teams get their first-round action underway this afternoon when Newport Public High meets Hindman and Madisonville takes on the Cadets of Millersburg Military Institute.

In tonight's session, Cuba's Cubs will tangle with Corbin in a game that promises to be the feature of the opening round. College High of Bowling Green runs into Lexington Henry Clay in the nightcap.

Breckinridge County's Bearcats became an upper bracket threat for the state title last night on the strength of their 53 to 44 win over Vine Grove. Vine Grove couldn't cope with the two Irwin brothers, Carlos and Bill, each standing six-foot-four.

Clark County was especially damaging as he poured in 38 points in the tournament's second game last night. Bill Irwin had only five points, but he was a rugged rebounder for the Bearcats.

Bill Irwin also put the clamps on Vine Grove's big man, Bill Darragh. Darragh tallied only seven points and fouled out before the end of the first half.

Vine Grove led only once, at four to three, on a rebound by C. C. Straney. Then Jim Sills banged in a set shot, and Breckinridge County was ahead to stay.

When Carlos Irwin rammed in two hook shots and three free throws within the next couple of minutes, the Bearcats had a 12 to 10 lead. They stretched that to 23 to 18 at the half.

Leo Norris, a sharp-shooting guard, led Vine Grove scoring with 11 points. Straney was next with 11.

The tournament opener saw the Cardinals of Louisville Manual fall to a 69 to 62 victory over a scrappy but undermanned team from Davies County. Heavy favored Manual had more trouble than expected in the early minutes as the Davies County Panthers used their speed to stay in the ball game.

But Davies County players were too small for the big Manual squad.

The Manual team led by only 18 to 15 at the end of the first period and the score was tied 19-19 at Davies County's Willie Ward drove in for a bucket, and again at 21-21 on a bucket by the Joger's Howard Kranwinkel.

Then Manual's superior height began to tell. Big Ed Graymeyer lobbed in a rebound and George Jones hit on a shot 19-23, the side. Nel Sketters, the little Manual guard, banged in two straight set shots late in the second period to give Manual a 16-point lead, 36-26.

Davies County never managed to close the gap.

Curtis Moffett, of Manual, led Davies in scoring with 10 points. Guy Herdy paced Davies County with 13 markers.

Bluegrass Silage Given High Rating

A digestibility test at the University of Kentucky, Experiment Station reported in Bulletin 579, showed the superior feeding value of bluegrass silage over alfalfa-molasses silage, when the bluegrass was cut in early bloom and grown on from the end that had been grazed.

High quality alfalfa-molasses silage, however, was found better than bluegrass silage when the bluegrass was not cut until full bloom or past and taken from fields that had been grazed within a month or two before cutting.

The report says making first cutting alfalfa into silage causes less damage than often occurs. Such silage also makes a better feed than the same alfalfa made into hay as the one roughage for steers and hogs.

Young alfalfa high in moisture and protein when put into the silage does not make good feed, unless it is cut early enough to press out the surplus moisture.

On the use of bluegrass for silage, the report states:

Several tons of high quality bluegrass silage were made and ready for use can be produced from a few acres of bluegrass.

From grazed fields, cattle in Kentucky had in one cutting made 100 tons of silage. This makes a high quality silage from the surplus forage usually produced by pastured pastures during the spring and summer months.

The demand for high quality silage in horse country is growing, and for many other uses.

Crippled Children Will Depend On Easter Seal Campaign

LOUISVILLE — The crippled children of Kentucky need $200,000 more than they will get from State, federal and private funds in 1952, and their only hope is the Easter Seal campaign, Friggs Lawson, Shelbyville merchant and State campaign chairman, said as last-minute preparations for the drive got underway here at State headquarters.

"Our State-wide goal is $200,000 this year," Lawson said, "but that will allow the program to merely tread-water. In other words, we won't go backwards, but we won't go forward either."

Lawson said that the Kentucky Society for Crippled Children, which annually conducts an Easter Seal campaign was notified by the Kentucky Crippled Children Commission that a shortage of funds resulting from the dissolution of the Kentucky Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and increasing care-cost created a need for the additional $200,000.

after the Society's goal was set,

Lawson explained this shortage was realized by Commission members following the appropriation of 1952-1953 biennial budget approved by the Legislature in January. "We can hope that the federal government will match these funds plus a little more," Lawson said, "but this will still leave the Commission short of funds needed to carry on their program." Lawson pointed out that the people of Kentucky do not understand the difference between the Society and the Commission. The Commission is the state agency having been created by the Kentucky legislature in 1924. It is the official organization through which funds are spent for medical treatment, funds privately donated and funds set aside as a part of the biennial budget.

The Society annually gives to the Commission for its medical care program a part of the funds raised through the purchase of Easter Seals and thus enables the Commission to treat more cases. The remainder of the money is used by the Society for other services which are not included in the official agency's program. For example, the Society maintains Cardinal Hill Convalescent Hospital, Lexington, the Curative Workshop in Louisville, gives volunteer aid at the Commission clinics around the State Department of Education in providing facilities and instructions for handicapped children. The Commission provides treatment for all types of crippling conditions of children under twenty-one years of age whose parents are unable to pay. For only a part of the cost of the treatment. Generally, the Commission's program includes orthopedic, public health, nursing, service, medical social service consultation, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy and psychological examinations.

Lawson declared that the 1950-51 annual report of the Kentucky Society for Crippled Children shows an expenditure for capital outlay and operating expenses of $269,032.76. The capital outlay portion will not be a major item in this year's budget, he said, since Cardinal Hill has been paid for.

Here's a Challenge Only FERGUSON Dares to Make!

As the Ferguson Dealer in this community, we will publicly match the new and far more powerful Ferguson "30" against any other tractor. We dare to do this because the new Ferguson "30" is bigger in power, in performance, in economy! At a "Showdown" demonstration we will prove that the Ferguson "30" with Ferguson System Implements, meets more of the needs of more of the farmers... more of the time... than any other tractor... outperforming them doing all of the following jobs:

Moldboard Plowing

Harrowing, Spike Tooth

Row Crop Cultivating

Side Delivery Raking

Disc Plowing

Drill Planter

Field Tilling

Loading & Spreading

Harrowing, Tandem Disc

Rotary Hoeing

Subsoiling

Wood Lot Sawing

There you are, farmers! The stage is set for a "Showdown." We know we have the best tractor in the world and we're ready to prove it to you.

We are not just claiming what the Ferguson "30" can do. We'll let this demonstration do the talking for us.

If you are thinking of buying a new tractor, look at all of them. Listen to what other dealers tell you their tractors can do. Ask these dealers if they are willing to prove these claims at a "Showdown" demonstration on your own farm. Then get in touch with us.

Match these jobs a Ferguson Tractor can do with Ferguson System Implements against similar jobs any other tractor claims to do... and you'll see we can do those jobs better with our new Ferguson "30." And we'll ask you to be the judge of how much better we do them.

Paducah Club Presents Lovely Program At Open Meeting Music Department Tuesday

The Music Department of the Paducah Women's Club and guests were delighted to present a lovely program at their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the club house by members of the Paducah Matinee Music Club.

Mrs. C. A. Leutenmeyer was mistress of ceremonies for the lovely program presented by the Paducahans. She was introduced by Mrs. Edward Griffin.

Miss Valeska Runge played two numbers on the piano which were "Beethoven Sonata Op. 90 in two movements, Allegro and Andante" and "The Door To The Wine-Cellar" by Debussy. Both numbers were beautifully played and the Spanish left hand rhythmic pattern of the number by Debussy made it very attractive.

Two ballad numbers were presented by Miss Frances Nagel, thirteen year old student of Krystal Smith. In her introduction of Miss Nagel Mrs. Leutenmeyer said she was one of the most talented students of Miss Smith's.

For her toe-ballet number, "Sleeping Beauty-Waltz" she was dressed in pink and for the concluding number, "Jingle Bells" she was dressed in a white costume. Miss Nagel was accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Slaughter at the piano. Her performance was very well received by the audience.

Soprano vocalist Miss Betty Schmaus with her unusual voice rendered three numbers—"Alleluia" by Mozart, "One Fine Day" by Puccini and "Zigeuner" from Blücher Sweet by Noel Coward—accompanied by Miss Runge at the piano. Miss Schmaus' interpretation of the songs was very good making everyone enjoy them very much.

Mrs. Richard Farrell, chairman of the Music Department, welcomed the guests from both Paducah and Murray and said that it was a pleasure to have the Paducah group in Murray.

Announcement was made of the new project of the department to

Cherry Rt. 6 News

Since so many persons have let us know that there is a welcome in their home for this column, it encourages us to keep on—keeping on.

Spring begins this week, time to get out our straw hats or bonnets, and get our yard brooms, rakes and hoes ready for yard and garden work.

The W. B. Outlands planted some in their garden two weeks ago, also Mrs. Faye Henry planted peas about the same time. Most everyone's gardens are yet too wet.

We hear of several persons that are ill. Mr. Henry Guarin of the Elm Grove community is reported seriously ill of paralysis at his son's, Gus Guarin. Mr. Henry has just returned from Oklahoma where he has spent the winter with another son's, Rufus Guarin.

Rev. Lon Outland of the Concord highway, who usually spends his winters in Florida, is suffering of arthritis.

Mr. Charlie Bucy, who suffered a stroke a few weeks ago is slowly improving.

Mrs. Faye Henry had strep throat last week, also Billie Joe Stubbfield had throat trouble.

Mrs. Clifford Farris tells us her father, Mr. Lamar Hendon, of near Murray had a heart attack last Saturday.

A larger attendance at the Cherry Church for the mid-week prayer service Wednesday night, last Thursday, preparing to retire Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hendon and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Farris and children, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wicker and the Mason.

Outlands went over to see the watch tower Sunday afternoon.

Arvin McCutcheon had sixteen thousand more pins last week that makes over a million now that he has set on his farms.

A big load of concrete tiles was unloaded at the W. B. Outland farm last Thursday, preparing to retire Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hendon and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Farris and children, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wicker and the Mason.
